

Faster Than a Computer

Receiving a report from the Regional South America Kinus Hashluchim at the end of Cheshvan 5747, the Rebbe wrote a fascinating response, describing how a letter placed by the Ohel of the Frierdiker Rebbe effects immediate results. [It should be noted that the Rebbe later reedited his response after it was typed out. The manuscript here is a facsimile of the second edit.]

Your letter was received with great satisfaction and I will mention it by the Tzion [of the Frierdiker Rebbe].

The lack of sufficient time does not allow [me] to even read it, but it has already been placed there completely [bringing about the desired result] to the last detail, as dictated by Toras Emmes.

In order to simplify the logic behind this idea for those [who need further explanation] etc.: Particularly nowadays, we have been shown a most evident example [of this concept], something which people rely on for their greatest and most important matters: The moment that one uploads data into a computer, at that very instant one is aware of the results and may draw conclusions based upon them.

And so, when one gives over/mentions something at the Tzion (of my father-in-law), it is obviously all the more so, and even incomparable – to uploading it to the abovementioned lifeless [computer], Lehavdil.

נתקבל ות"ח ואזכיר עה"צ [=על הציון].
ואין הזמן גרמא לקרות אפילו – אבל הנתינה
כבר בשלימותה ובכל הפרטים כפסק דין תורת
אמת.

להקל ההבנה גם לאלו וכו' הראו דוקא בזמנינו
דוגמא בולטת ושעל פיה עושים בפועל ואפילו
בענינים הכי עיקריים והכי גדולים, שאפילו
בדומם – ביכולת בני אדם לפעול כהנ"ל: ברגע
שמכניסים לקאמפיוטר ה DATA – ברגע
כמיוטרא יודעים כל המסקנות ופסקי דין לפועל
ממש.

וכשמזכירים מזכירים על הציון (דכ"ק מו"ח
אדמו"ר) הרי זה כפשוט ביתר שאת ועד לאין
ערוך – ממסירה לדומם הנ"ל, להבדיל באין ערוך.
