Blasting Forward

A community activist asked the Rebbe what to do to ensure the continued success of his institution.

The Rebbe responds:

[It depends on your approach to activity and growth. Do you choose to act] in a complacent manner (truly [staying where you are¹]); moving forward [slowly]; running; flying on the airplane of the Wright brothers (of the past century); or [flying at a much greater pace using] as is now accepted, with a rocket?

[I.e. it is up to you to make the choice of how to move forward. You can either move slowly, or even fly, but with the pace set in the past century, or you can move ahead and grow with full force.]

1. It seems that the Rebbe is saying: at times you may think you are moving, while in reality you're actually staying in one place.
