“Undisclosed”

The Rebbe responds to a letter from Reb Zalman Duchman, an elderly Chossid who, with the Rebbe’s steadfast encouragement, meticulously recorded his recollections of what he heard and saw in previous generations.

Here he writes to the Rebbe about the many stories and facts he heard from the Rebbe’s mother, Rebbetzin Chana, referring to them as “באהאלטענע זאכין”—undisclosed things.

As an example, he cites the fact that the Rebbe was born as a result of a bracha from the Rebbe Rashab.

The Rebbe circles the words “באהאלטענע זאכין” and comments:

בודאי יעלה וירשום אותם בכתב

You will certainly transcribe and commit them to writing.
