

CAKE FOR THE REBBE'S GUESTS

Every year as Chodesh Tishrei arrived, Reb Moshe Yaroslavsky from Eretz Yisroel would arrange accommodations for the groups of visitors who would travel to 770 to spend the special month with the Rebbe.

Often at the Rebbe's farbrengens during those weeks, Reb Moshe would approach the Rebbe to receive the tray of cake from the Rebbe's table to share with the guests.

Nearing the end of the farbrengen, the Rebbe would signal or call out to Reb Moshe to come and receive the plate of challah or cake to be distributed to the orchim. Before Rosh Hashanah the Rebbe would send him several pomegranates and Reb Moshe would give each guest a few seeds from the Rebbe's pomegranates.
