Opportunities of Shemitah

In a Shemitah year, a Yid has more time to socialize and meet people.

During the first six years of the cycle, a Yid is preoccupied with working the land and his time is limited. But in the seventh year, the Shemitah year, a Yid is prohibited from working his field, and as a result he has a lot of free time to learn

Torah and do mitzvos. This includes interacting with other Yidden living in his neighborhood or even far from him, which is the mitzvah of ahavas Yisroel and strengthens the unity amongst the Jewish people.

This lesson applies even when most of the laws of Shemitah are not observed anywhere outside Eretz

Yisroel. The relaxed, non-work atmosphere of Shemitah makes it the best time for spreading goodness and kindness throughout the world.

Additionally, when one can go about his work without the worry and stress of a regular work year, his work is accomplished with much more success. T
