

YUD SHEVAT 5735*

As the world celebrated the milestone of 25 years of the Rebbe's leadership, a diverse crowd of thousands of people packed 770 for the now historic farbrengen of Yud Shevat 5735*.

Concluding at nearly 3:40 a.m., the farbrengen was filled with special moments and sichos on various topics. The farbrengen was aired live on radio and was videotaped, now available from JEM to watch in its entirety.

We present a beautiful collection of photos from this special occasion.

The Rebbe began by speaking about זרעו מה בחיים, the ultimate sign that a tzadik lives on is through the actions of his talmidim. He also called for each and every person to become a leader in their surroundings.

Then-Bronx borough president Robert Abrams presented a proclamation. After reading it the Rebbe enquired about his wife, “Is Mrs. Abrams also here?”

“Yes, she is,” he answered, as he pointed to the general area where she was seated in the women’s section. “I’m very happy,” the Rebbe responded.
